

I live in Northern California and listen to K-LOVE exclusively while traveling and often from my home as background music. I do not listen to secular music stations because of the poor moral message such music often sends.

Losing K-LOVE would result in my family and thousands of other families losing a good, clean and moral source of music.

K-LOVE is an excellent source of relevant news and presents it in an unbiased manner. It provides an alternative to mainstream media bias and formats.